

The wonderful Mrs. Brown has already been in touch with information about how you can join in with the parish and how they will be commemorating the 75 years of Liberation. Here are a few ideas of what you can do to learn about and commemorate the 75 years of freedom in Jersey. You can do a little each day or spend a whole day getting busy and creative with activities. Have fun and join in the celebrations!

- Make your own Jersey flag to wave during the celebrations.
- Make your own bunting to decorate your home and or garden. You could explore by cutting different shapes, triangles or semi-circles work well. Can you make a pattern using the colours red, white and blue?
- Have a look at some of the photos that were taken of the Liberation Day in 1945. What do you see? What is the same and what is different?
Here are links that can take you to a good selection of photos:

- When the occupation ended there still was not much food in the island, so a ship bought special red cross parcels with lots of tasty items that the people of Jersey had not been able to get. You can find out more about the red cross parcels here:

If you were making a food parcel for a friend what would you put in it? Your favourite sweets? Chocolate? Jam? Cheese spread? A little toy? Colouring Pencils and paper? You could make a parcel in a small cardboard box, like a shoe box. How much can you fit in? Make sure you put in things that won't get squashed or go mouldy!

- Help get the tea party ready! Maybe you could bake or decorate some cakes. Help make the sandwiches. Get the plates out. There are lots of ways you can help. Don't forget to help afterwards too. Tidying up. Washing the dishes.

Happy Liberation Day!
